This individual will have a Degree in Human Resources or Labour Relations and have substantial related experience, preferably with a large public employer. Effective interpersonal, supervisory, presentation, technology and organizational skills are paramount. Possession of the CHRP designation is an asset.

Core Responsibilities include:

- Collective bargaining
- Leadership of labour relation processes including employee discipline, investigations, grievances, mediation and arbitrations
- Chairing management/union committees
- Maintaining regular contact with union representatives regarding member issues that arise, and communicating to resolve issues
- Working closely with management in other departments and sites to encourage and provide understanding of labour relations to optimize relations with CUPE
- Recruiting and hiring to support staff positions
- Supervising the HR Assistants in the department to ensure processes are followed

The ideal candidate will have:

- Completion of a Bachelor's Degree in Human Resources or Labour Relations, or equivalent education combined with relevant work experience
- Substantial experience working in a related field (preferably a large public employer)
- Sound judgment with a high degree of integrity and discretion
- Excellent human resource and labour relations skills
- Superior interpersonal and leadership skills with a positive mindset
- Outstanding written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to learn new employment systems quickly

This professional exempt position works in an office environment and reports to the Director of Employee Services. The successful candidate will be offered a competitive salary and benefit package.

Applications will be accepted until 4:00 PM, December 10, 2021.
